

Universalist Convocation 2022

Honoring our Past, Shaping the Future

July 29 - 31, 2022

The Board of Trustees of the Universalist Convocations extends a cordial invitation to all UUs to attend the upcoming annual Universalist Convocation.

Since 1990, Universalists have been holding an annual convocation to holdfast the spiritual roots of American Universalism. Please join us for the Universalist Convocation 2022.

When: Friday – Sunday, July 29 – 31, 2022, click this link. On Sunday, celebrate with All Souls Unitarian Universalist Church as they commemorate the bicentennial of their congregation.

Where: All Souls Unitarian Universalist Church, 25 Church Street, Bellville, Ohio 44813.

Discover Our Universalist Roots!

Attending this Universalist Convocation is the perfect opportunity to learn, explore and celebrate the rich history of the other U in our UU faith tradition.

Registration

Registration is now open! You may register online or by a paper registration form. We ask that attendees have received at least two initial COVID-19 vaccination shots. A list of Recommended Area Accommodations is provided on our website.

Dynamic Speakers

Rev. Schuyler Vogel, Senior Minister of the Fourth Universalist Society in New York City. He holds degrees in religion from Carleton College and Harvard Divinity School. He serves on the Core Team of Faith in New York, the Board of Trustees for the St. Lawrence Foundation for Theological Education, and the Advisory Board of the Andrew Romay Center New Immigrant Center. Rev. Vogel will present: Not For Ourselves Alone: a Universalist Survival Guide.

Rev. Dr. V. Elaine Strawn, Co-Chair of the Commissioned Lay Minister Council for the Central East Region of the UUA. Rev. Strawn served as the settled minister in the UU Fellowship of Wayne County in Wooster, MA for 23 years before semi-retiring. She offers Spiritual Direction to a wide variety of people. Walking, gardening and tai chi keep her grounded and inspired. Rev. Strawn will present Breaking Open our Hearts.

Jay Kiskel, former President of the Universalist Convocation and currently serving as the Convocation's Treasurer. He has a degree in Applied Mathematics from Rutgers University. After retiring from a 35 year IT career as a Global Program Manager, Mr. Kiskel has focused on documenting Southern Universalist history. He is a board member of the UU Studies Network (formerly UU History and Heritage Society). Mr. Kiskel will present the History of the Young Peoples' Christian Union (Y.P.C.U.)
